

2 TIMOTHY

4:6-8

6 In fact, as for me, I'm already being poured out on the altar, and the time for my departure looms near. 7 I've fought the good fight, I've finished the race, I've kept the faith. 8 In the future, there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award to me on that Day—and not just to me but also to all who have loved His appearing. ♦

The chief mark of a _____ well-lived and a _____ well-died is a heart well-set on _____.

PASSING THE BATON #37 ■ FBC

Bruce Stabbert ■ May 17, 2009

Title:

The View from the Finish Line

1. What the last step looks like (vs. 6)

—a well-used _____: a last sacrifice poured out for God

—an imminent _____: loosing the lines that bind to earth

2. What the past looks like (vs. 7)

—a noble _____: no trivial pursuits

—a completed _____: no turning back

—a kept _____: no bending the book

3. What the future looks like (vs. 8)

—a victory _____: never to sin again

—a longed-for _____: to see Jesus in His victory