

More Than Meets The Eye:
Restoring a Biblical Perspective to
Relationships in the Workplace & Beyond
Ephesians 6:5-9

I. Slaves:

Knowing Christ is our ultimate boss empowers us with the motivation to work in difficult situations for difficult people.

II. Masters:

Knowing Christ is our master empowers us with the ability to value people as our equal.

Application:

1. Always elevate the attitude and effort of your work to the level that Christ deserves.
2. Never estimate the value of people based on their position in society, but their identity before God.
